The Ministry of Human Resources Development (HRD), Govt. of India has declared January 12, the birthday of Swami Vivekananda, as the National Youth Day. India celebrates this day by holding workshops, seminars and conferences to motivate, inform and empower young Indians to contribute to the growth and development of the country.

Swami Vivekananda exemplified the values of commitment, compassion, and action; which were deeply rooted in Indian systems and beliefs, yet his outlook remained global. Swami Vivekananda was a Karma Yogi and a fierce patriot committed to inclusive growth, development and prosperity of all Indians. The National Youth Day is observed with the objective of imbibing such ethics and standards in the youths of the country.
